Form TACT1 (11/04)

LEICESTERSHIRE CONSTABULARY

THE TERRORISM ACT 2000
Notice of Examination

DC 1307
NEIL

GENERAL

This notice is to inform you that you are being questioned under the provisions of Schedule 7 to the Terrorism Act 2000 as someone (whose presence at the port of (..... EAST MIDLANDS AIRPORT)) is believed to be connected with entering or leaving Great Britain or Northern Ireland or travelling by air within Northern Ireland or Great Britain) (whose presence within the border area between Northern Ireland and the Republic of Ireland is connected with entering or leaving Northern Ireland). This in itself does not necessarily mean that the examining officer who is questioning you suspects that you are a person who is, or has been, concerned in the commission, preparation or instigation of acts of terrorism. The purpose of the questioning is to enable him / her to determine whether you appear to be such a person.

YOUR DUTIES

You have a duty to be truthful and to give the examining officer all the information in your possession which the officer requests. You must also give to him / her, if he / she so requests, a valid passport, or other document which establishes your identity. You must also declare whether you have with you any documents of a kind specified by the officers, and if he / she so requests, give them to him / her. The examining officer may also search your luggage.

The examining officer may, for the purpose of examination, detain any document which you have given to him / her, or anything found during a search of your luggage, for a period not exceeding 7 days (beginning with the day on which the detention commenced).

You may also be asked, or have been asked, to complete and hand to the officer an arrival or embarkation card. If so, you have a duty to comply with that request.

If you deliberately fail to comply with any of these duties, you could be prosecuted under paragraph 18(1) of Schedule 7 to the Terrorism Act 2000.

YOUR RIGHTS

You may, if you so request, have someone close to you, or known to you or likely to take an interest in your welfare, informed that you are being questioned and where you are. You can do this at public expense. You may also consult a solicitor, whether in person, in writing or by telephone.

If you do not wish to make a request now you can still do so later at any time.

DETENTION

The examining officer also has authority to detain you, if necessary, for up to 9 hours from the time your examination began.
