

Subject: RE: FYI Paul, if happy will submit, thanks
Date: Thursday, 10 July 2008 14:31
From: Ray Jonathan <brzjr1@exmail.nottingham.ac.uk>
To: Greatrix Paul <brzpmg@exmail.nottingham.ac.uk>

Thanks - will submit and send cutting and any follow up for inf

From: Greatrix Paul
Sent: 10 July 2008 14:30
To: Ray Jonathan
Subject: Re: FYI Paul, if happy will submit, thanks

One change to 3rd sentence only – the one we discussed earlier

On 10/07/2008 13:55, "Ray Jonathan" <brzjr1@exmail.nottingham.ac.uk> wrote:

SUGGESTED RESPONSE:

Dear Sir,

The last 'Muslim News' included a letter from Mr Umar Shah of London which articulated strongly felt beliefs on the treatment of Muslims in Britain. Mr Shah also claimed that 'some of the staff are spying on Muslim undergraduates' at our university. This is simply not true. The University's senior management recently met with members of our Muslim community to give that reassurance; such meetings take place regularly. Recent events at the University were sparked not by a policy of widespread surveillance but by a single and genuinely random interaction. The police, as the only appropriate authority, then conducted their investigation, and in this case both men who were arrested were released without charge. The student arrested, Mr Rizwaan Sabir, in fact brought himself to the attention of the police and was arrested by them for impeding their inquiries. Nobody 'reported' him. Nobody 'spied' upon him. 'Muslim News' also published a story in the same edition with the headline 'Government cancels plans to speed up the deportation of